The main lounge in Baxter Hall was provided through the Crusade for Christ funds, assigned by the Board of Education to Willamette for this purpose. The house mother's suite was provided by the late Doctor L. Franklin Belknap and his wife in honor of their pioneer parents. The fame of this residence hall for men has spread throughout the country and numerous colleges administrative officers are stopping in Salem to see the plans which have been developed for all the men students on the campus.

In the past year, all three divisions of the University have reached their greatest efficiency since the war. The enrollment at Willamette exceeded 1100 students. During the next year there will be a determined attempt to reduce this enrollment back to approximately 1000. Willamette accepts students from the upper half of the graduating class, which enables the University to do a superior quality of scholastic work. All three divisions, the College of Liberal Arts, College of Law and the College of Music, hold the highest accreditation which can be granted by the respective accrediting agencies.

Willamette University takes pride in its relationship to the Methodist Church. We are very jealous of Willamette's position as a Christian college. Every effort is being made to conduct the affairs of the college to be in complete accord with the ideals of the Christian church. The Counselor on Religious Life has, as his responsibility, the program of religious activities and the counseling of the individual students on their religious problems. Doctor Raymond A. Withey, who has served this year as Counselor on Religious Life, has made an outstanding impression upon the campus for his administrative ability, his earnest Christian leadership and devotion to the young people. Willamette makes no attempt to be narrow or secular in its approach to religious life on the campus. There is a place for all religious denominations. We do insist, however, that we do everything in our power to maintain the Christian atmosphere of the campus.

At Willamette there are nine religious groups on the campus, including the following: YWCA, YMCA, Wesley Fellowship, Westminster Fellowship, Phi Zeta Christo, Catholic Club, Congregational Club, Inter-varsity Christian Fellowship and Oxford Club. The leaders of these various organizations are organized into an inter-faith council, which meets regularly each month with the Counselor on Religious Life for the discussion on religious matters of common interest on the campus. This year, for the first time in many years, a Religious Emphasis Week was held. It was thought by the students and the Counselor on Religious Life, that it would be helpful to set aside one week in the college year for the express purpose of helping students clarify their religious beliefs.

At Willamette, the term evaluation rather than emphasis was actually used, inasmuch as Willamette University is a Christian college and has always sought to emphasize religion in its total program. The week was to be one primarily of evaluating the meaning and worthwhileness of religion. The highlights of the week included a broadcast of the play, the Terrible Meek, by the University dramatic workshop and a production of the drama, the Little Minister, adopted from James Barrie's book of the same name. One evening was set aside for dinner and fireside discussion groups in each of the living units on the campus and local and out-of-town religious workers were invited as resource leaders, along with several members of the Willamette faculty. There were three one hour services held on each of three days, Tuesday, through Thursday, at which music was provided by the University aCapella choir and addresses were given by the Reverend Myron C. Cole of the First Christian Church of Portland. On two of the

Every phase of activity has shown growth and increased interest through the year. The Cleveland Conference stands out in the field of youth work, having made a tremendous impact upon the seventy delegates attending. Our camp sites and camp programs show progress. The nineteen sub-districts are serving each age group to better advantage. We merely wish to summarize our report on the Church School in a few figures of the quadrennium. The 1944 column is used for comparison.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY
SALEM, OREGON

The outstanding event of the year 1947-48 on the Willamette University campus was the completion and dedication of the new residence hall for men. Eleven months from the day that ground was broken, 224 men students moved into Willamette's new Bruce R. Baxter Memorial Residence Hall. This is an appropriate memorial to our beloved Bruce Baxter. It is a living memorial in which succeeding generations of young men, to whom he was so devoted, can develop Christian ideals as they live together in their college association. The plan of the building is unique and five months of occupation indicates that all of our hopes for this building have been realized.

Baxter Hall was built at a cost of $750,000. Friends of Doctor Baxter and of Willamette University have participated widely in the erection of this memorial. More than $450,000 has been paid on the building in cash. This includes the gifts in the College Day Collection of this spring, in which Methodists throughout the Conference have had the privilege of making a small contribution to the building. The College Day Collection was slightly over $3000. This has already been applied to reduce the mortgage.

REPORT of WESLEY FOUNDATION at the UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

1. With the inauguration of the "University of Life," Wesley's new Sunday evening program, a forward step was taken toward the goal of increased student participation in discussion and study groups.

During winter term 98 students were enrolled in three discussion groups meeting simultaneously on Sunday evening. Topics discussed were: "Religion

Annual Wesley Retreat at Camp Magruder.

In Music"; "We, The Peoples"; a study of United Nations; and "History of Methodism." Average attendance was 58.

Spring term—students were enrolled for the courses: "Understanding the Bible"; "Comparative Religion"; and "Love, Courtship, and Marriage."

2. A week-day discussion group on "Doctrinal Study of the Methodist Church," had 12 students enrolled.

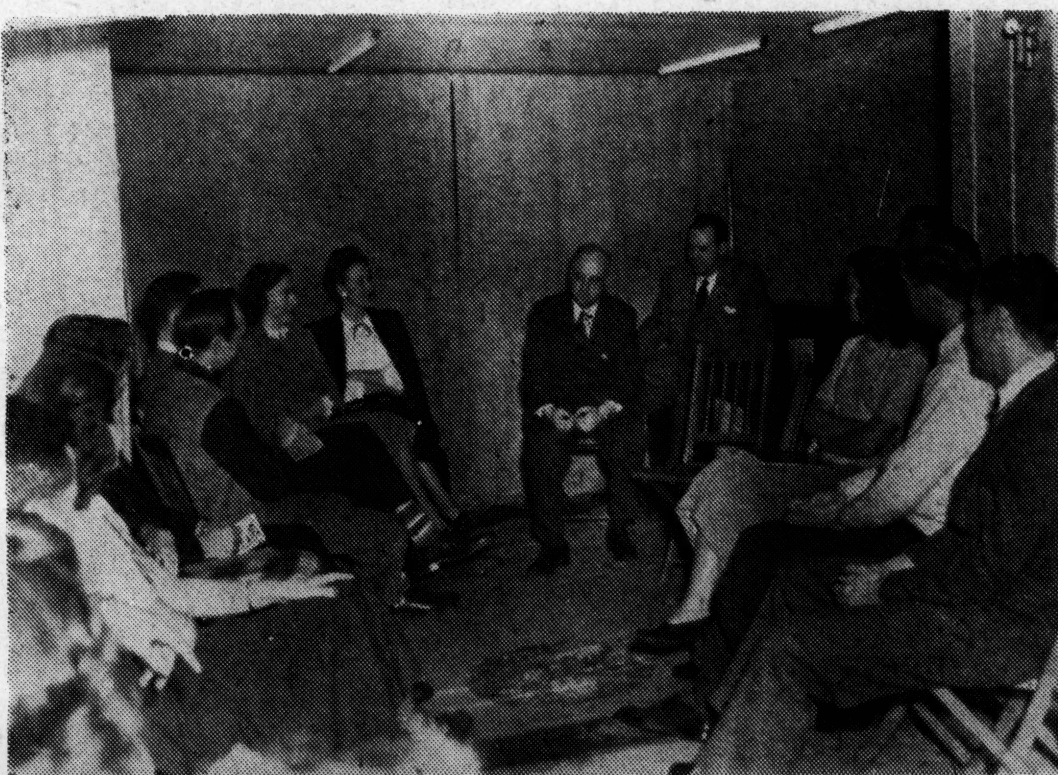

3. A week-day meditation service was held on Wednesdays at 7:30 a.m. and grew to be an important source of spiritual growth.

4. The Wesley Chorus grew to number 60 voices. This group sang programs at Cottage Grove, Junction City and Eugene.

5. Program planning Retreat was held at Silver Creek Falls with 60 attending. Students planned the Wesley program for next year.

6. Main service project was in gathering clothes for the Christmas Ship. Twenty-four Mercy bags of clothing were sent from Wesley.

7. Ten young people attending Regional Student Leadership Training School at Lake Tahoe, June, 21-28.

One of the discussion groups of the University of Life. This one is "Methodism Has A Challenge."

GOALS FOR 1948-1949

1. Program to begin for a new Wesley Foundation Building.
2. Students pledging a days work for mission project thru Methodist Student Service Fund.
3. Enlarged deputation work thruout the Conference.
4. Students engaging in Caravan work during next summer.
5. Development of cell groups and Bible study groups.
6. Increased interest and activity in Social Action projects.

afternoons of the week students attended special coffee hours where an opportunity for further discussion of religious problems with religious leaders were provided. It is safe to say that at least 75 percent of the students on the Willamette campus were reached by some of these activities of the religious evaluation week. Plans are being made for another such program in the coming college year.

Under the direction of Doctor Withey, the University has shared its religious program with the churches in the community throughout Oregon. This year, deputation teams were organized for a double purpose. One—to supply the pulpits of the various churches in Oregon where such assistance was desired, as well as aiding the organization and development of religious youth groups. Two—to furnish valuable experience for those planning on lifetime careers in religion. For the most part this year, the work was confined to the members of the Wesley Fellowship, who primarily served the Methodist churches of the Salem district. These deputation teams worked closely through the office of the Superintendent of the Salem District, who not only provided opportunities for such service in the churches in his district, but gave five cents a mile toward the transportation expenses of the teams out of his promotional fund. Before going to visit a church, the members of the deputation team met with the Counselor on Religious Life for assistance in planning their programs and the student conducting the sermon submitted a rough draft of his speech for approval, so that the experience might have an educational side as well as a spiritual. The Counselor on Religious Life accompanied a number of these groups and gave instructive criticism of the work done. During the past year the deputation teams made forty appearances throughout the district, holding services.

Doctor Withey has been most active in his contact work representing the University in the pulpits throughout Oregon. Starting early in September, Doctor Withey has appeared in eighty-two church meetings and young peoples meetings during the year. The Thursday worship chapel continues to be the heart of the religious observance on the campus. Outstanding leaders of all denominations are invited to the campus to speak at these chapels. The religious survey of students on the campus this year shows thirty denominations represented in the student body at Willamette. 389 Methodist students continue to be by far the largest group on the campus.

Again I should like to express my appreciation to the Oregon Conference for the appropriation of $4000 through the Committee on World Service and Finance and the opportunity of presenting Willamette once each year to the churches in the Conference on Willamette Sunday. The problems which face all endowed, church-related colleges these days are numerous. Certainly, not least is the problem of maintaining high standards of excellence in the faculty when state supported institutions are in a much more favorable position, so far as salaries are concerned. The Conference of the Methodist Church adopted a resolution urging Methodists to support their church-related colleges. From a financial standpoint, a goal was set in each conference for the equivalent of $.50 per member in the support of higher education. Willamette merits the confidence and support of this Conference and I hope that we may continue to work toward an increased appropriation until we meet the standard suggested by the General Conference.

Respectfully submitted.

G. Herbert Smith, President.

Program of Activities

Worship and Study

Sunday school classes are led by Dr. Frank Magruder and Dr. Earl Litwiller. A large group of students attend the morning church services.

Forum speakers have included Reverend Roy Fedje, District Superintendent; Dean Dubach, Lewis and Clark College; Justina Singh from India; Mr. Frank Bennett, Superintendent of Schools, Salem, Oregon; Dr. H. N. Hooker, Pacific University, Forest Grove; Mr. Harold Ehrensberger, editor of Motive Magazine; and professors of Oregon State College.

Professors and business men participated in a discussion of "Religion in Business," and students presented "Summer Activities in Christian Service."

Interdenominational Sunday services are held at Camp Adair where four hundred married couples live.

Oregon Annual Conference

Greatest achievement this year in Wesley Foundation has been the growth of the creative democratic process by which the students themselves have managed the student program, determined the policies, and put their own ideas into operation. Strong leadership for the church is developing out of this achievement.

Chapel service at University of Life.

Several of the students are looking forward to vocations within the church. Three have definitely decided for full time service.

Of the 583 Methodist preference students registered at the University of Oregon, 180 have been active in some phase of the Foundation program. Many others have had more casual contact with the program.

It has been a great privilege to work this year with a group of students gaining in possibilities, interest, and enthusiasm concerning the living of a Christian life on the campus. As director of the Wesley Foundation at the University of Oregon, I should like to express my appreciation to the ministry and student secretaries of the WSCS in the Oregon Conference whose help is invaluable to the successful operation of this student parish.

Respectfully submitted,
David Seaman.

During the five months I have been in the Wesley Foundation at Oregon State College I have become increasingly aware of the challenge to guide our students in building a constructive, creative program based upon their religious needs. It seems imperative that our first emphasis must be to provide opportunities for personal, spiritual enrichment which is so essential in developing a Christian faith for individuals and society.

I am exceedingly grateful for the splendid interest and enthusiasm of the students, for the fine cooperation of Dr. and Mrs. Stevens, members of the Advisory Committee, and many other members of the local church.

I consider the work here to be a splendid opportunity to serve the Master.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

No priority can legitimately come ahead of evangelism in the life of the church. Therefore, in order that Oregon Methodism collectively and individually may more readily succeed in putting evangelism into the first place and keeping it there among the many interests of the church, your Board of Evangelism calls all the congregations of this Conference to a program of evangelism in two directions.

I. Evangelism within the Church.

(1) The spiritual life of our ministers, without exception, needs deepening. To this end we ask each District Secretary of Evangelism to plan with his District Superintendent a series of spiritual life retreats for the ministers, aiming to have each minister attend at least one retreat during the year.

(2) The spiritual life of our laymen without exception needs deepening. Therefore, we ask that each District Secretary of Evangelism in collaboration with the District Superintendent and the District Lay Leaders arrange for as many laymen's retreats as possible throughout their respective districts. The objective should be to have the lay leadership of each parish in at least one such retreat during the year.

(3) We strongly recommend the parish cultivation plan devised by the General Board of Evangelism for the wider distribution and use of the Upper Room as a means for establishing a family altar in every Methodist home.

(4) Our children must be led to a definite decision for Christ and prepared for Church membership. We, therefore, request that each pastor study thoroughly pp. 119-124 of the 1944 Discipline. If these pastoral responsibilities with regard to the children are conscientiously discharged, a rich harvest for the Kingdom will result. We highly commend the wholesome evangelistic work being done in our entire summer camp program.

II. Evangelism outside of the Church.

(1) The unchurched masses must be reached for Christ. Again we recommend the goal of winning a number on profession of faith equivalent to ten percent of our present active membership. In 1946-47 we received only the equivalent of five and one-half percent. This means that every ten Methodists in Oregon will be responsible for winning one person for Christ and the Church during the next year. God have mercy on us if we cannot achieve this!

(2) We strongly recommend that home visitation evangelism crusades be held in every parish in the fall and spring of the year.

(3) We recommend that we make a special effort to win leading citizens of the community for Christ. There is no hope for a Christian community without Christian leadership.

(4) We recommend closer cooperation with other churches in each community, in a common evangelistic enterprise. City wide religious surveys, a Community Wide Religious Emphasis Week, and City wide visitation crusades all have been used with excellent results in many places. We urge our pastors to cooperate with National Christian Teaching Missions which will be coming to our conference this fall.

(5) No method of evangelism which succeeds in leading men to Christ is outmoded. Pulpit, and educational as well as visitation, evangelism must be utilized to the fullest extent possible.

Brethren, the fields are white unto harvest. This is the accepted time. For just such a crucial day as this did God call the Methodist people into being. Let us be conscious of our mission. Evangelism is our peculiar genius. It must remain our prime motivation. Let us not fail to live up to our calling. If the evangelistic fire burn not within us, then let each of us meet alone with our Christ in a solemn tryst until this lost passion masters us. By the help of God, we dare not let ours nor future generations down!

Respectfully submitted,

E. J. Aschenbrenner, Chairman.

Ralph G. Kleen, Secretary.

gram is developed and approved at the mid-year meeting and this is sent back to the staff of the Inter-Board Council for further study and to be correlated into a composite Conference program. This composite program goes to all boards and agencies for further study so that each may submit a well-balanced program to the Annual Conference.

- c. When the Annual Conference approves each board's recommendations concerning program, the board then submits those phases which are to be promoted by the Inter-Board Council to the Council. Each board and agency retains such phases of work which do not lend themselves to cooperative promotion and execution.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF TEMPERANCE

The Liquor Interests are preparing for battle! The great challenge is for Christian people to take a positive stand. Alcohol in any form is a poison and is habit forming—Therefore, all should abstain. There is no place for compromise. TOTAL ABSTINENCE IS THE ONLY SAFE RULE * WHERE THERE IS DRINK THERE IS DANGER.

WE SUGGEST THE FOLLOWING:

1. Seek to unite our efforts with all the forces interested in building Christian character and renew our determination to drive out the forces of evil.
2. We commend our Methodist Board of Prohibition and Public Morals for their positive stand at the General Conference and urge all pastors to select an active Temperance Committee in each local church, according to 1944 Disc., Par. 148:3; 235; 236.
3. We pledge our loyalty and confidence to the enlarged program of the Anti-Liquor League of Oregon. We commend the excellent work being done by Lester H. Brattain, new superintendent of the Anti-Liquor League of Oregon. We recommend that each church invite a representative to present the work of the Oregon organization at a Sunday morning service and be allowed to take an offering. When this plan cannot be observed, then each church should contribute at least twenty-five cents per member to assist in this needed project.
4. That the Board of Education have at least one Temperance message by a competent speaker at each Youth and Young Adult Summer Camp. That sound movies, film strips and other visual aids be used occasionally in Church School and Youth Fellowship meetings.
5. That the cabinet name one Sunday to be known as Oregon Conference Temperance Sunday. The pastor and the local temperance committee to work together.
6. That at least one Conference Youth worker be sent to a summer school of Alcohol Studies next summer and that the cost of the scholarship be requested from the Committee on World Service and Finance.

We commend our youth of the Sellwood church for their resolution pledging themselves not to attend movies where they have reason to believe that drinking scenes and dissolute behavior is portrayed. We urge all our Methodist youth to protest by a similar public pledge or to the local management of theatres, and to Mr. Eric Johnson, President of Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America.

Be it further resolved that our people be urged to continue their Crusade by working for state censorship and federal regulation of Motion Picture production and distribution.

That the reading and then the publishing of this report in the minutes, and the financial report is not sufficient for the need. We must PRAY, PLAN AND WORK!

Oregon Annual Conference

REPORT OF INTER-BOARD COUNCIL

The Inter-Board Council, consisting of two representatives from each of four—the Board of Evangelism, the Board of Missions and Church Extension, the Board of Lay Activities, and the District Superintendents, has completed its first year as an integrating agency of the Oregon Conference. Two young women, Miss Olivia Olson and Miss Dorothy Harding have been our representatives in the field. Their work has been under the supervision of the Cabinet and the direction of the Inter-Board Council.

This experiment in Inter-Board cooperation has been so successful in meeting the needs of the Oregon Annual Conference, that the present Board, together with representatives of other boards and agencies of the Conference, recommend an enlargement of the membership and work of the Inter-Board.

On April 7, 1948, the Inter-Board Council met, having invited representatives from the Board of Hospitals and Homes, the Board of Conference Claimants, the Woman's Society of Christian Service, the Board of Ministerial Training, the Board of Temperance, the Committee on World Peace, the Rural Life Commission, the World Service and Finance Commission.

A motion of Owen Beadles, a resolution was passed to ask permission of the Annual Conference to organize an Inter-Board Council after the pattern of the Tennessee Conference, looking forward to the employment of a staff, which is to take the place of the present staff employed in the Conference.

I) The Council shall be composed of the following:

- a. The Bishop.
- b. Three members from the Board of Education.
- c. Three members from the Board of Missions and Church Extension.
- d. Two members from the Board of Evangelism.
- e. Two members from the Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service.
- f. Two members from the Board of Lay Activities.
- g. One member from the Board of Ministerial Training.
- h. One member from the Board of Conference Claimants.
- i. One member from the Board of Temperance.
- j. One member from the Conference Youth Fellowship.
- k. One member from the Committee on World Peace.
- l. One member from the Commission on Town and Country Work.
- m. One member from the Board of Hospitals and Homes.
- n. The District Superintendent of each District.

Members of each board or agency shall be elected by such board or agency and approved by the Annual Conference.

II) The Organization of the Council:

The Council shall have a chairman, vice-chairman, secretary and treasurer. The Conference Treasurer shall be the Council Treasurer.

III) Meetings:

The Council shall meet at least twice annually. One meeting shall be at least 30 days prior to the Annual Conference. The Executive Committee of the Council shall act for the Council between these two meetings, and shall meet at the call of the chairman.

The Bishop is requested each year to call the District Superintendents, the Inter-Board Council Staff and related workers together soon after Conference to study the program which each board and agency has approved and submitted to the Inter-Board Council. This meeting shall coordinate and develop the promotional steps and launch the coordinated program in the Conference.

IV) Staff:

The staff of the Inter-Board Council shall promote the total Conference program as developed by the various boards and agencies and assigned by them to the Inter-Board Council.

The Council shall select and elect its staff subject to the approval of the Cabinet.

V) Program:

- a. The Conference staff studies the work of the Conference and sends to each board and agency those suggestions for program and work that appear to be essential to the ongoing work of the Church in the Conference. This is done prior to the mid-year meeting of these boards and agencies.
- b. Each board and agency uses these suggestions and others occurring to them as the basis of developing a well-balanced program. A pro-

OREGON METHODIST FEDERATION FOR SOCIAL ACTION (Unofficial)

Annual Conference Report
June 18, 1948

SPRING CONCLAVE

High light of the Federation's work for the past year was the two day spring conference held at the First Methodist Church, Portland, March 4th and 5th, 1948. The general theme for the two day session, "Christianity and the State," was introduced at the first session on Thursday by Bishop McConnell with a presentation of the theme, "The Christian Theory of the State."

In the afternoon session four specific issues facing the Christian and his state were discussed by selected leaders in their respective fields. Mr. Kelley Loe of the Oregon Federation of Labor led in the presentation of the dangers of the "Taft-Hartely" labor law. Mr. Gilbert Sussman, Portland attorney discussed President Truman's so-called "Loyalty Order." Mr. George Thomas, head of the Social Action Commission, of the Portland Council of Churches, painted a vivid picture of continuing Race Discrimination, while Mr. Phil Dreyer, executive secretary of the Oregon Veteran's Committee spoke in opposition to peace time universal military training.

In the evening, Mr. Gerson Goldsmith, Portland attorney spoke on behalf of "United World Federalists, Inc.," which sets forth the idea of world government with limited powers but adequate to prevent war.

The theme of Friday morning's discussion centered around the thought of movements looking toward a more Christian experience in State craft. Mr. Roland Jones, president of the Oregon Farmer's Union discussed the Consumers' Co-operative Movement. The contribution that Bonneville Power project, and other similar developments, have made toward a better life for the nation was told by Mr. M. J. Collett, Personnel Director of Bonneville. Mr. Morton Tompkins, State Master of the Oregon Farmers Grange presented the theme of "Tennessee Valley Authority and Our American Way of Life."

Friday afternoon's session was a spirited one on the "Oregon Legislative Scene," with Monroe Sweetland, editor of the "Newport News," of Newport, Oregon, in charge. Mrs. Richard Neuberger, in the absence of her husband, shared time with Mr. Manley Wilson, editor of the official publication of the International Wood workers' Union, in discussing the subject, "Legislative Re-appointment and Designated Election Districts."

RECOMMENDED ACTION

An Action committee for the Conclave was formed at the close of the afternoon session, chaired by Rev. Ennis Whaley with Miss Olivia Olson as Secretary. The following proposals were made and unanimously adopted at the dinner meeting.

1. A Memorial to be sent to General Conference of our Church to the effect that the Central Jurisdiction be eliminated and that the churches thereof become a part of their respective geographical area.
2. The executive board was directed to prepare and publish an appraisal of candidates running for Congress and the state legislature, with recommendations to our people as to whether these candidates merit support, with reasons for recommendations.
3. Resolutions to be sent to representatives and senators in Congress stating our disapproval of the universal military training act and asking them if possible to oppose the measure.
4. Necessary action for the drafting of a bill by initiative petition for constitutional re-apportionment of representation to the state legislature by districts.
5. Members of our churches are urged to study the Consumer's Cooperative Movement as one that more nearly approaches our concept of a Christian economy.

At the closing dinner session in the evening some one hundred members and friends of the Federation were challenged by the Bishop to a more intelligent and aggressive program of action to the end that the life and teachings of our Master might find practical application in our economic and political life. "Servants of the Will of God," an address by Rev. Cecil Ristow, pastor of University Methodist Temple, Seattle, in tribute to Bishop McConnell gave a stirring presentation of this great Christian Statesman who has been so many things to so many people and so many causes, through an extraordinarily effective ministry.

We are happy to have had a small part in seeing that John Hall is not a candidate for Governor of Oregon in the fall elections. In spite of the money that seemed to be pouring in to support the candidacy of John Hall, his past close comradeship with the liquor and gambling fraternity put him out of the running for some time.

Bennie Gragg, a Negro student at Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina, who receives a scholarship from our Woman's Society has completed her second year. Miss Gragg is the third Negro girl to receive a scholarship from the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

This year we are adding to the list, the support, for three years of Miss C. Miriam Brattain of Portland, who is going to Japan as a worker in Christian service. We consider it a great privilege to have a part in carrying the message of Christ to other peoples. Through the earnest efforts of our secretaries of youth work, student work, and missionary personnel we hope to interest young people in full time Christian service for we are aware of the great need for trained leadership.

Through the concerned efforts of those responsible for the seven areas of work, under the program of Christian Social Relations and Local Church Activities, the year of 1947 was a year of Christian growth and service for Methodist women. During the year more money than ever was raised and spent, not only for local needs but for extending help around the world. Greater interest was shown in racial discrimination, alcohol, the housing problem, family relations, delinquency and legislation in local communities, state and nation.

Wesleyan Service Guild which serves the gainfully employed women, furnishing an opportunity for study and giving to missions, is growing under the able leadership of Miss Cora Mason of Ashland.

A report from the department of Children's work shows the work going forward. An increase in church school enrollment, average attendance, additional sessions, and attendance at Daily Vacation Bible school. There seems to have been a steady improvement in the missionary guidance for children.

Reports show an increase in subscriptions to all publications; Methodist Woman, World Outlook, the Oregon Conference Bulletin. The latter, edited and published by our Woman's Society gives help and information to each society.

Most of the supply askings have been met, both in cash and materials totaling $3,607.91 sent to both home and foreign fields. Last year our pledge to the division was $18,000. We sent $25,000. All money sent to the Division in 1947 was $30,848.35. An annual gift of $1000 goes to the Methodist Old Peoples' Home at Salem.

Our women continue their support to Camp Magruder and have given generously to the Suttle Lake program.

The changing of boundary lines by the 1947 Annual Conference session has given the Woman's Society four Districts. We have found this change an improvement making for greater opportunity in promoting the work of the Society and we can report new societies being organized and the Forest Grove District well organized and growing.

Eight women from Oregon attended the Western Jurisdiction meeting held in Denver, February 15, 1948, where we received much information as to the needs in all the departments and fields of our work and great inspiration to give ourselves more fully in His service. That His way may be made known in the earth and that nations may learn to walk in His light.

Mrs. W. L. Lewis,
Conference President.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

The Conference Board of Lay Activities has had its most active year since its organization eight years ago. District or sub-district meetings for laymen have been held in all four districts. Credit for this good showing is due the district and associate district lay leaders and the district superintendents, all of whom have cooperated.

The Board met at Camp Magruder on August 31 in conjunction with the Salem District Laymen's retreat, and mapped 6 objectives for the year as follows:

1. To cooperate in every possible way with the Board of Christian Education in the promotion of the Church School emphasis in the Crusade for Christ.
2. To set up a series of district and sub-district meetings to inspire and train the laymen of the churches in carrying forward zealously the whole program of the Church in the local parish, in the Conference, and in the world-wide mission.

Oregon Annual Conference

cooperation with the Peace Commission of our conference, Rev. Harold Hart, Chairman, the Federation sent out some three thousand pieces of literature opposing universal military training. Mrs. Grace Jenkins early last Fall had an effective leaflet in opposition to peace time military training which was adopted in its major portion by the Portland Council of Churches and The Council of Church Women. Some four thousand of these leaflets were sent to all parts of Oregon and many out of state. Approximately 700 copies of "Take Up Oregon Methodist," a mimeographed sheet calling on all those opposed to peace time military training to write Senators and Congressmen in opposition to such measures, was sent out in April.

In May, Federation members cooperated with others in Portland, in other parts of Oregon, and in Washington, in helping send some eighteen people from the Northwest on the National Peace Train Mission, to Washington, D. C. Federation members contributed over a hundred dollars to this project. Two young people from the leadership of Fremont Methodist Church, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schuch, were members of this Mission.

The suggestion was made at our Spring Conclave that the attendance and interest of such a conference meeting could be greatly increased by holding a series of one day conference in districts or sub-districts throughout the conference area the two or three months preceding the big Conclave.

Another suggestion made at a recent committee meeting was to the effect that local action groups be formed in each church to study and act upon a situation of local interest and importance. Forest Grove, through Dr. Gertrude Crane and Ralph Kleen have put themselves on record for such action at Forest Grove. We await with interest the further development of this "cell" experience in other churches in our conference.

WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH

"THAT HIS WAY MAY BE MADE KNOWN UPON EARTH"

The coming of Christ into the world, with his message and ministry to all people, regardless of race or sex, gave to woman the key to unlock the spiritual resources within her. Christianity is the only religion that advocates complete freedom and equality for women, and there are no words of Jesus Christ which advocate the exclusion of women from spiritual experience. So Christian women of the twentieth century have found themselves not only with open doors before them but with locked doors which they must open if the onward march toward building a Christian world is not hindered. The members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church are walking in this path of service, to make His way known upon earth.

The spiritual life cultivation program, with the emphasis on stewardship, has a wide opportunity for expansion. A new and deeper sense of Christian stewardship embracing time, talent, and possessions, in other words, the whole life, has been realized in our Woman's Society. Some of the results of this diversified program are an increase in prayer groups, and a marked increase in the number of those signing intercessor cards.

The quiet time or hour apart has stimulated spiritual growth and family life. The week of prayer and self denial was a spiritual high-light of the year.

The Women of Oregon Conference are becoming increasingly aware of the need for study and through the Missionary program of our Society are learning about other races; building attitudes and creating understanding and good will at home and abroad.

The increase in attendance at the Woman's Society Summer School held each year at Camp Magruder bears testimony of the desire for a better knowledge of the great program and for training in leadership. Last year two classes were offered for credit: We the Peoples of the United Nations, taught by Mrs. W. B. Drum of the Division, and Great Prayers of the Bible, taught by Mrs. J. W. Schuch, Forest Grove.

It is impossible to measure the values received from early morning worship services, Christian fellowship and recreation.

The gifts for missions increase each year and the number of societies receiving Jurisdiction recognition for study has also increased. Oregon women by societies and individuals are supporting 23 Bible women and 27 scholarships and are taking shares in missionary salaries and hospital work. Miss Evelyn deVries, missionary to Africa is doing splendid work teaching in the Nellie Dingley School, Mutambara Southern Rhodesia. Miss Laura Heist is at work in India. Miss

SOUTHERN DISTRICT

Samuel L. Mackin, Lay Leader

With the cooperation of District Superintendent, S. Raynor Smith, the Southern District has made good progress in the promotion of lay activities. The district is divided into five sub-districts as follows: Northern or Eugene Area, Roseburg or Central Area, Coos Bay, Rogue River and Klamath Basin Area.

In the Eugene area, three very well attended and enthusiastic meetings were held in Springfield, Creswell and Eugene. About 100 men were in attendance at each meeting. Sub-district meetings were also held in the Rogue River area and in the Coos Bay area. Lay work throughout the district has responded to the effective leadership of Dr. S. Raynor Smith, our District Superintendent.

Respectfully submitted,

Edward Clark, Conference Lay Leader.

The session was constituted with prayer by Dr. Edward L. Clark, Conference Lay Leader.

Oregon Annual Conference

To enlist laymen as lay preachers and members of gospel deputation teams to supply pulpits and to assist the district superintendents in needy places and in emergency situations.

To continue the program of Stewardship promotion, education, and cultivation begun in the churches last year. One of our particular concerns is the recruiting of high minded young men for the Christian ministry. The importance of such a recruitment is evident when we realize that in this last decade the number of losses by death and retirement averages 200 per year more than the number of admissions to the Methodist Ministry.

To undertake to raise $20,000 for a dining room, kitchen, and sanitary facilities at the Suttle Lake Institute grounds.

To purchase an adequate supply of Hymnals for Camp Magruder.

FOREST GROVE DISTRICT

Clyde F. Walker, District Lay Leader

Joint Layman's Retreat with the Salem District was held August 30-Sept. 1 at Camp Magruder.

The district lay leader spoke to the pastors of the Forest Grove District during their retreat at Camp Magruder, Sept. 14.

A sub-district men's meeting was initiated by associate lay leader Lester Brown for the Oregon City area, and held at Oregon City on October 14 with 60 present.

A district meeting for laymen and pastors was held at Forest Grove on May 29th with about 140 present. The district lay leader prepared a paper for the meeting, which was presented in his absence by Rev. Ralph Kleen.

A district laymen's meeting was held on May 18th at Forest Grove, with a attendance of 75 men representing 11 churches. Forest Grove had 26 present while Tillamook far exceeded other charges in "man-miles" with 15 men present. Beaverton was third with 7 men answering roll call. Prof. Robert Brown of Nicaragua was the speaker. At this meeting Robert Barton of Forest Grove was elected Secretary-Treasurer for the District Laymen. Emphasis was placed on attendance at the Forest Grove District Laymen's retreat scheduled for August 28-29, 1948, at Camp Magruder.

PORTLAND DISTRICT

Howard B. Somers, District Lay Leader

A sub-district meeting of laymen was held in September at Arlington presided over by Associate District Lay Leader, Dr. R. S. McVicker. About 30 laymen were present from seven churches in this section. This was the first meeting of its kind in this section and the men were enthusiastic about such gatherings becoming a permanent program.

Talks were given by Edward L. Clark, Conference Lay Leader, and Howard Somers, District Lay Leader.

A district wide meeting for laymen was held at First Church, Portland on a Friday afternoon in January with about 50 men present from a wide distribution of churches. Talks were given by Bishop McConnell, Dr. Joseph M. Adams, W. McHale and Ernest W. Peterson, Associate district lay leaders.

SALEM DISTRICT

Lloyd E. Gilson, District Lay Leader

The Salem District has been the most active district in promoting lay activity during the past eight years. This year six district meetings were held in the Salem District. These meetings were so distributed throughout the district that all the men in the district had the privilege of attending at least two of them.

The annual Salem District Laymen's Retreat at Camp Magruder was well attended and has become one of the outstanding laymen gatherings in the conference. Real fellowship and spiritual inspiration is enjoyed by all who attend. The District Board held two planning meetings during the year, with all present. We can truthfully report a very successful year on our district.

Oregon Annual Conference

REPORT OF RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

the members and friends of the 96th Session of the Oregon Annual Conference express our appreciation to our host church, Centenary-Wilbur for their hospitality; to its gracious minister, Owen Beadles; to the church secretary, Ervey Leisy; and to the Woman's Society of Christian Service for their hospitality and service of meals, floral decorations, conference tea and innumerable refreshments extended to the Conference. Also we extend our thanks to the Rev. Mrs. Meta Holm, the directors and choirs of Centenary-Wilbur Church, Church, Rose City Church and the Hughes Memorial Church for the fine service given the conference.

Conference is grateful to all who added to the devotional and spiritual enrichment planned for our enrichment: for the morning devotions by Bishop J. McConnell, the addresses of Bishop W. Y. Chen and Dr. Carl Gregg on the significant Centennial program prepared and directed by Dr. Wm. Youngson, the highlights of the Oregon-California Mission and greetings to the California Conference by the Rev. Shirley T. Sherrill.

visits of Dr. Corliss P. Hargraves of the General Board of Education, Frederick L. Pederson of the Division of Home Missions and Church Extension, Dr. Charles L. Calkins of the Board of Pensions, and Dr. Paulus Scharaf. Many have all challenged us to a larger vision and service for our church.

Special appreciation is due our Conference Secretary and staff, Statisticians, and the Faithful and energetic efforts of our District Superintendents. To these, and many more, the list of whom would be too long to read, express our thanks.

II

On behalf of the 1948 Oregon Annual Conference we wholeheartedly speak our gratitude to Bishop Francis J. McConnell for his leadership during the year of administration of this conference. We are indebted to him for his inspiring and inspirational addresses to us during the conference. Also to his first lady, Mrs. McConnell who shared our fellowship and encouraged the work of the parsonages in their many tasks and duties. We have been blessed by her presence and leadership and are happy for these months of laboring together for God and His Kingdom.

The Resolutions Committee,
Albert J. Wilson.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

The conference Treasurer's report shows total receipts of $86,295.09 for World Service and Conference Benevolences which is 10 percent above the giving of the year ago. This is on top of a 4½ percent increase reported in 1947 and 7 percent increase reported in 1946. The Conference Benevolence budget items have been met in full and there remains a surplus of $294.09. All receipts for World Service have been forwarded to Dr. Thomas B. Lugg, Treasurer of the General Commission on World Service and Finance.

World Service apportionment for the next Conference year is $63,028. As a result of the study of the askings from the various Annual Conference interests for apportioning funds for their work your Commission recommends an Annual Conference Benevolence budget of $45,312.00. These two items make a total of $108,340.00.

We present the following proposals:

That the apportionment to the charges be made by the District Superintendent in harmony with paragraphs 782 and 783 of the Discipline and that two copies of the acceptances be sent to the Conference Treasurer. (These paragraphs are from the 1944 Discipline as the numbers in the 1948 Discipline are not available).

All money raised for World Service and for Annual Conference Benevolences shall be shared pro-rata between the Conference Benevolences and the World Service on the following ratios: 45 percent to the Annual Conference Benevolences; 55 percent to the World Service.

All benevolence monies shall be remitted monthly to the Annual Conference Treasurer in keeping with the provisions of paragraph 791 of the Discipline. (Paragraph 788 Discipline for new paragraph number).

The following Conference benevolences are approved:

21. We recommend that the Institute Sites Commission be authorized to continue a quiet campaign for the Institute Sites Funds, without quotas or assessments on the churches.

22. We recommend that the Wesley Foundation at the University of Oregon be granted permission to raise money, by solicitation or otherwise, to be used as building fund.

John A. Linn, Chairman.

Ernest W. Peterson, Secretary.

REPORT ON THE COMMITTEE ON MINIMUM SALARIES

The Committee reports that it had on hand at the beginning of the Current Conference year $4,717.00.

Within the year $5.00 from the Commission on World Service and Finance and $2,064.00 from assessment on the Pastors has been received making a total of $6,786.00. This was $1360 short of the amount necessary to pay all claims in full on the basis of the standard set at the 1946-47 Conference.

We recommend that the minimum salaries for this year remain unchanged and that the present assessment of 1 per cent on all salaries equal to the minimum or more be continued. In addition we are asking for $3,500 from the Commission on World Service and Finance. We recommend that Conference Rule XXVII be amended as follows:

Sec. 7. The plan for minimum support shall not apply to churches where the difference between the minimum salary of the conference and the salary paid by the charge (plus missionary and other income) is more than $400.00.

Payments to and from the Fund are to be paid quarterly.

B. Earle Parker.

S. Raynor Smith.

Laurance A. Burdette.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION

The record will disclose the fact that the Board of Missions and Church Extension has made steady progress each of the four years of the post quadrennium. We however have not yet reached the peak of our giving. Kingdom business calls for larger gifts.

Two factors must be remembered, first because of inflated prices, it requires more money to continue the work we have been doing and secondly, we are daily challenged to carry on a larger work because of the calls coming from many fields throughout the world.

Our Board of Missions heartily recommends the Quadrennial Missionary program as outlined by the General Conference last May. Their challenge to the Church was expressed in the phrase "The Kingdom of God throughout the World." If this is to be realized, it will be so because the Board of Missions and Church Extension will send out missionaries, teachers and preachers who will proclaim the good news. 835 additional ministers and missionaries must be sent into missionary fields each year to meet the urgent calls. Through the Board of Missions an appeal must be made to the youth of our Conference, offering unto them the greatest challenge of all ages. The task for an enlarged ministry calls for an enlarged missionary budget. The General Conference is asking the church to raise $51,000,000.00 during the next quadrennium. Truly this requires a greater loyalty and devotion than exhibited in the past, without which we cannot win the Kingdom of God.

The following plans are being carried forward as a part of the promotional work in making our goals a realization. On August 6-11 the Aisilomar Conference will be held which will give inspiration to all who will attend. We recommend that the District Missionary Secretaries of this Conference attend this Conference.

Dr. Karl Quimby writes that "The Missionary Conference to be held in Columbus, Ohio, October 6-7-8 will be the most important Missionary Conference to be held on this continent in ages." Every District Superintendent and Conference Missionary Secretary has been asked to be present. This Missionary Convocation will be followed by 32 regional meetings in the United States and Canada. The meeting for the Oregon Conference will be held in Portland, November 8-9. At the close of this Conference, we will be prepared to go to our respective districts, disseminating the truth and plan for our great spiritual missionary advance. From our District Conferences, we will move into the local churches, seeking to inform their leadership.

Oregon Annual Conference

We further recommend that the Conference Treasurer be authorized to pay each District Superintendent a minimum salary each month of $250.00 beginning July 1, 1948. We request that the Conference Treasurer be authorized to borrow funds in order to honor the district expense vouchers and to maintain this salary schedule, which loan shall be a first claim against the District Superintendents' Fund until repaid.

We designate the United States National Bank of Portland, or the First Bank of Portland, or any of their branch banks within the State of Oregon as depositories for Conference Funds.

The chairman of each Conference Benevolence institution or cause desired be considered by this Commission for inclusion in the Annual Conference Budget shall be required to send to the Secretary of the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance twelve copies of the detailed proposed budget of his institution or cause, at least one month in advance of the Annual Conference, and at the close of the fiscal year twelve copies of a report on the year's expenditures. This latter report shall be filed with the Commission later than the day preceeding the opening of the Conference.

Your Commission recommends that November 14th be observed by the churches as Willamette University Sunday, and at that time the cause of the University may be presented in the churches and a special offering taken for the same. This shall be in addition to the grant in the budget. This money shall be collected through the Conference Treasurer.

Your Commission reports that persons holding Conference funds are in the following manner: Conference Treasurer, $10,000; Conference Board Treasurer, $5000; Conference Claimants Permanent Fund Treasurer, $5000; Conference Trustee Treasurer, $5000. We are advised that the Conference Treasurer of the Woman's Society of Christian Service is included in a bond taken out by their national headquarters.

The apportionments to the Conference for the general conference and conference Administration Funds shall be apportioned to the Charges of Conference by the District Superintendents on the same percentage ratios as for the benevolence funds. They are:

A. General Administration Fund	$3,329.00
B. Travel and Entertainment Committee	700.00
C. Statistician Staff Expense	35.00
D. Expenses Commission on World Service and Finance	75.00
E. Auditing Conference Records	250.00
	$4,389.00

The Jurisdictional Conference expense apportionment is an amount equal to one-fourth of one percent of the pastor's cash salary as published in the 1944 Yearbook of this Conference, provided that any deficit of any year must be paid out of the quadrennium. (The Commission is continuing this item on the 1944 Yearbook because the 1948 Jurisdictional Conference has not met. Any necessary changes or adjustments will be included in a subsequent report).

The apportionment for the Episcopal Fund is an amount equal to one and one-half percent of the cash salaries of the pastors for the current year.

The Commission is arranging to have an audit of the books of all Treasurers handling Conference funds.

All benevolence monies, both the World Service and the Conference Benevolence, shall be remitted monthly by the charge treasurers to the Conference Treasurer, who shall distribute them monthly to the various causes, agencies and institutions according to the schedule herein set forth.

To pay the Conference Claimants annuity rate of $18.00 requires approximately $58,614. The present plan of apportionment, together with the receipts from the Methodist Publishing House, the Board of Pensions and the Chartered Fund, plus the accrued interest on Conference deposits and other funds, will produce an income approximating $59,631, which is sufficient to meet this annuity rate.

The Commission recommends that each church contribute one communion offering each year to the Conference Claimants Necessitous Fund, to be remitted to the Conference Treasurer.

The Conference Treasurer has set up a revolving fund out of Annual Conference benevolence surplus to take care of the needs of the benevolence causes during the summer season.

Oregon Annual Conference

During the current year the Board, through the Carrier Estate, has been able to make donations to seven churches to the extent of $4,800.00. We have also made donations to several churches amounting to $20,000.00. Calls of momentous urgency are coming to us from time to time. This coming year we will assist in starting two churches in the Conference. One will be known as the River Road near Astoria where thousands of new families are moving in. The other will be in the West Home district where at present there are living ninety Methodist families and more coming. Time and space do not permit further detail regarding these projects. At a meeting of this Board held at the opening of our Annual Conference, we voted to give assistance to a charge where a minister and his family live with sanitary conditions as primitive as those you would find among people in a mission field. Furthermore, Oregon has had a 39 percent increase in population since 1941 and only 22.9 percent of the people of the State have any religious convictions within the State. Certainly the Board of Missions has a tremendous responsibility for which God is holding us responsible. With the limited funds we have at our disposal through the Carrier Estate, we cannot meet this responsibility and are thus for the first time appealing to the Commission on World Service Finance for financial assistance.

The Board happily accepts the following recommendations made by the Inland Council in collaboration with the Chairman of the Board of Missions,

Each District Superintendent and the district church location committee submit to the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension an annual survey or listing of church extension projects with recommendations as to maintenance and property allocations as may be needed.

That the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension give careful consideration to said items and recommendations and approval of such as may seem feasible for the forthcoming year.

That said Board of Missions and Church Extension a year hence correlate in cooperation with the Rural Life Commission a total conference program for the following year and present the same to the Conference World Service and Finance Commission, the total asking for both extension and maintenance, including recommendations as to distribution and payment of funds to each project approved for the year's program.

That the Conference World Service and Finance Commission include the approved items for maintenance under "District Missionary, Education, Evangelism and Improvement" heading and that the approved items for property, building, etc. be included in the budget allowance headed "Conference Building Fund."

That the total askings be included in "Conference Benevolence" to be raised and distributed as are all other Conference Benevolence items.

That the Board of Missions and Church Extension seek to develop a plan for the promotion of wills, annuities, endowments, or direct gifts to the Board for the purpose of aiding in the missionary work of the church.

Lastly, that the Board seek to encourage any well established church or group of churches under the direction of the District Superintendent, to act as sponsors for new Sunday schools and churches in opportunity fields, and that the money spent by the churches in such fields be given credit on Conference benevolences."

Conclusion:

The Board of Missions heartily recommends that one or more members of each local Board of Missions and Church Extension be urged by the pastor to be present at some gathering where the total missionary program will be presented, such as the Missionary Conference to be held in Portland, November 8-9, after which they shall assume the responsibility for carrying forward the missionary program, not only increasing the missionary giving, but enlisting youth for Christian service.

Missionary leaflets be distributed monthly to the membership of the church.

That the fourth Sunday be observed as missionary Sunday throughout the Sunday School.

The every-member canvass be made seeking subscriptions for World Service from every member of the church.

The local churches must find their spiritual strength in the service they render to the larger church throughout the world. The stronger our missionary program becomes, the stronger will be our church, and thereby shall all men know we are the servants of the Lord God.

Respectfully submitted,

Ed. A. Wolfe,

Conference Missionary Secretary.

REPORT ON THE RESERVE PENSION CAMPAIGN
OREGON CONFERENCE

Following the action of our last Annual Conference changing the assessment to the charges from one based on pastor's salary to one based on church membership, your committee found that $7.00 per active member as recorded in the Conference Journal of 1946 would raise sufficient funds to meet the quota.

The committee on publicity met early in October, it was thought that the churches were fairly well supplied. Dr. Edward L. Clark, Conference Lay Leader was requested to send a letter to all charge lay leaders urging interest in the campaign. In a letter urging the observance of Conference Veteran's Day between Thanksgiving and Christmas a booklet "Pensions with a Solid Foundation" distributed in the Pacific N.W. Conference was enclosed. Several requests for additional copies of the booklet resulted in our ordering 2,500 copies through the office of the Pacific Northwest Conference.

At a meeting of the committee held in December, plans were made for meetings with Dr. Charles L. Calkins of the Board of Pensions, January 5, 1948. It was decided to invite all members of the campaign committee, the members of the Boards of Conference Claimants with several pastors and laymen to meet with Dr. Calkins. This meeting was held in the Methodist Area Headquarters with Bishop Francis J. McConnell, presiding. A discussion on group life insurance versus reserve pensions took place in the morning session. In the afternoon session Dr. Calkins presented further plans for the campaign. An executive committee was authorized, to be appointed by the cabinet for the completion of the campaign.

This committee met January 17 in the office of the District Superintendent at First Church Portland and decided on a five point program:

1. That each local church treasurer remit to the conference treasurer all money on hand for the Pension Fund February 1st.
2. That remittances be made the first of each month hereafter.
3. That each local church underwrite its quota by June 1st, 1948.
4. That each local church pay 75 percent of its quota by May 31, 1948.
5. That each church plan to pay its quota in full by May 31, 1949.

Communications were sent to all pastors acquainting them of this action. Pledge cards offering envelopes and literature were sent upon request. The cause was presented in each of the four District Meetings by a member of the committee.

We ask for complete cooperation to reach our goal this coming conference year, if possible by December 31st, 1948 thus fulfilling our original slogan "Victory in 1948." We have raised $113,454; we need $104,306. This will mean strenuous cooperative effort. We recommend the observance of CONFERENCE VETERANS' DAY (Discipline 1612 par. 6. before December 31st, 1948.

Respectfully submitted,
John W. Warrell, Chairman.
Thomas D. Yarnes, Secretary.

Oregon Annual Conference

This current year the Board, through the Carrier Estate, has been able to make donations to seven churches to the extent of $4,800.00. We have also made loans to several churches amounting to $20,000.00. Calls of momentous urgency come to us from time to time. This coming year we will assist in starting two new churches in the Conference. One will be known as the River Road near Eugene where thousands of new families are moving in. The other will be in the Sweet Home district where at present there are living ninety Methodist families and more coming. Time and space do not permit further detail regarding these projects. At a meeting of this Board held at the opening of our Annual Conference, we voted to give assistance to a charge where a minister and his family live with sanitary conditions as primitive as those you would find among the people in a mission field. Furthermore, Oregon has had a 39 percent increase in population since 1941 and only 22.9 percent of the people of the State have any connections within the State. Certainly the Board of Missions has a tremendous obligation for which God is holding us responsible. With the limited funds we have at our disposal through the Carrier Estate, we cannot meet this responsibility and are thus for the first time appealing to the Commission on World Service and Finance for financial assistance.

This Board happily accepts the following recommendations made by the Inter-Board Council in collaboration with the Chairman of the Board of Missions, that—

1. Each District Superintendent and the district church location committee submit to the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension an annual survey or listing of church extension projects with recommendations as to maintenance and property allocations as may be needed.
2. That the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension give careful consideration to said items and recommendations and approval of such as may seem feasible for the forthcoming year.
3. That said Board of Missions and Church Extension a year hence correlate in cooperation with the Rural Life Commission a total conference program for the following year and present the same to the Conference World Service and Finance Commission, the total asking for both extension and maintenance, including recommendations as to distribution and payment of funds to each project approved for the year's program.
4. That the Conference World Service and Finance Commission include the approved items for maintenance under "District Missionary, Education, Evangelism and Improvement" heading and that the approved items for property, building, etc. be included in the budget allowance headed "Conference Building Fund."
5. That the total askings be included in "Conference Benevolence" to be raised and distributed as are all other Conference Benevolence items.
6. That the Board of Missions and Church Extension seek to develop a plan for the promotion of wills, annuities, endowments, or direct gifts to the Board for the purpose of aiding in the missionary work of the church.
7. Lastly, that the Board seek to encourage any well established church or group of churches under the direction of the District Superintendent, to act as sponsors for new Sunday schools and churches in opportunity fields, and that the money spent by the churches in such fields be given credit on Conference benevolences."

In conclusion:

1. The Board of Missions heartily recommends that one or more members of each local Board of Missions and Church Extension be urged by the pastor to be present at some gathering where the total missionary program will be presented, such as the Missionary Conference to be held in Portland, November 8-9, after which they shall assume the responsibility for carrying forward the missionary program, not only increasing the missionary giving, but enlisting youth for Christian service.
2. Missionary leaflets be distributed monthly to the membership of the church.
3. That the fourth Sunday be observed as missionary Sunday throughout the Sunday School.
4. The every-member canvass be made seeking subscriptions for World Service from every member of the church.

The local churches must find their spiritual strength in the service they render to the larger church throughout the world. The stronger our missionary program becomes, the stronger will be our church, and thereby shall all men know that we are the servants of the Lord God.

Respectfully submitted,
Ed. A. Wolfe,
Conference Missionary Secretary.

REPORT ON THE RESERVE PENSION CAMPAIGN OREGON CONFERENCE

Following the action of our last Annual Conference changing the assessment to the charges from one based on pastor's salary to one based on church membership, your committee found that $7.00 per active member as recorded in the Conference Journal of 1946 would raise sufficient funds to meet the quota.

The committee on publicity met early in October, it was thought that the churches were fairly well supplied. Dr. Edward L. Clark, Conference Lay Leader was requested to send a letter to all charge lay leaders urging interest in the campaign. In a letter urging the observance of Conference Veteran's Day between Thanksgiving and Christmas a booklet "Pensions with a Solid Foundation" distributed in the Pacific N.W. Conference was enclosed. Several requests for additional copies of the booklet resulted in our ordering 2,500 copies through the office of the Pacific Northwest Conference.

At a meeting of the committee held in December, plans were made for meetings with Dr. Charles L. Calkins of the Board of Pensions, January 5, 1948. It was decided to invite all members of the campaign committee, the members of the Boards of Conference Claimants with several pastors and laymen to meet with Dr. Calkins. This meeting was held in the Methodist Area Headquarters with Bishop Francis J. McConnell, presiding. A discussion on group life insurance versus reserve pensions took place in the morning session. In the afternoon session Dr. Calkins presented further plans for the campaign. An executive committee was authorized, to be appointed by the cabinet for the completion of the campaign.

This committee met January 17 in the office of the District Superintendent at First Church Portland and decided on a five point program:

1. That each local church treasurer remit to the conference treasurer all money on hand for the Pension Fund February 1st.
2. That remittances be made the first of each month hereafter.
3. That each local church underwrite its quota by June 1st, 1948.
4. That each local church pay 75 percent of its quota by May 31, 1948.
5. That each church plan to pay its quota in full by May 31, 1949.

Communications were sent to all pastors acquainting them of this action. Pledge cards offering envelopes and literature were sent upon request. The cause was presented in each of the four District Meetings by a member of the committee.

We ask for complete cooperation to reach our goal this coming conference year, if possible by December 31st, 1948 thus fulfilling our original slogan "Victory in 1948." We have raised $113,454; we need $104,306. This will mean strenuous cooperative effort. We recommend the observance of CONFERENCE VETERANS' DAY (Discipline 1612 par. 6. before December 31st, 1948.

Respectfully submitted,
John W. Warrell, Chairman.
Thomas D. Yarnes, Secretary.

1948 GENERAL CONFERENCE—PROPOSED QUADRENNIAL PLAN

We recommend it be called For Christ and His Church. This plan has two highly significant objectives:

I. THE FIRST OBJECTIVE

(1) Teaching and Preaching Endeavor in which Methodists may achieve a deeper understanding of and commitment to Our Faith, Our Church, Our Ministry, and Our Mission. The emphasis shall be, as follows: First Year, Our Faith; Second Year, Our Church; Third Year, Our Ministry; Fourth Year, Our Mission, and there will be a booklet for each of the major objectives of our faith, for instance: Our Faith in God, Our Faith in Christ, The Holy Spirit, The Kingdom of God, The Forgiveness of Sins, Love, The Life Everlasting.

During the First Year, when the church studies Our Faith, the action program should be the Lifting of World Service Giving to levels commensurate with contemporary need.

(2) The Second Year, Our Church. A similar series of booklets should be prepared to deal with the Nature of the Church, the History of the Church, the Contribution of the Methodist Church to Evangelical Christianity; and an understanding of the Church in terms of its privileges, such as worship and fellowship, and its creative contributions in terms of Christian character and of social changes. The program of action should be an evangelistic effort to reach the unchurched, together with a program of church extension design to organize and build churches and church schools in new communities throughout the world.

(3) The Third Year, Our Ministry. Our objective should be to interpret our Christian vocation in the light of the Protestant principle of "the universal priesthood of all believers" in which the "call to the ministry" and the divine summons for all vocations shall be clarified and hallowed. The action program should be recruitment of talented and dedicated youth for the ministry of the church and other Christian vocations.

(4) The Fourth Year, Our Mission. Our Mission shall be presented in terms of our Mission in the Home; Our Mission in the Community; Our Mission in the Nations; and our Mission in the World. The objective is the establishment of the Christian community, the Christian nation, the Christian world.

II. THE SECOND OBJECTIVE

The world-wide ministry of The Methodist Church during the quadrennium now ending reflects the vision and response of a devoted people. The General Conference has adopted as the second phase of our church-wide movement For Christ and His Church the following plan by which our people may voluntarily participate in the expanding work and ministry of the church:

1. The Methodist constituency to raise by purely voluntary methods a special fund over and above the World Service apportionments, which shall be called the Advance Fund.

2. The Advance Fund shall be made through two channels:

- By duly authorized Specials to our Conferences and churches.
- By observing each year a special week, called the Week of Dedication.

COURSE II

For Supply Pastors and Local Preachers, Conference Boards of Ministerial Training may choose this Course of Study for their undergraduate ministers after securing the permission of the Commission on Ministerial Training. The first two years required for local deacons orders; all four years required for local elders orders. All examinations must be written. See Discipline, Paragraphs 321-327 and 345-347.

Numbers in parentheses are to Handbook pages.

PROGRAM OF EVANGELISM FOR THE QUADRENNIUM 1949-1952

1. TO REACH AND WIN THE INDIVIDUAL.

A. We propose to win 2,000,000 persons on profession of faith and vows by visitation, education and pulpit evangelism with these yearly goals for the quadrennium:

1949	400,000
1950	500,000
1951	500,000
1952	600,000

B. We propose to train them and assimilate them to the end that they may be intelligent, faithful followers of Christ and effective members of the church.

C. We propose to train 500,000 lay workers and 100,000 young people in evangelism.

D. These goals compel us in cooperation with other agencies and leaders of the church to establish or reopen 2,500 churches in rural areas and to help recruit hundreds of ministers and other Christian workers for this task.

E. We propose to challenge every minister, layman, lay woman, and youth to a spiritual revitalization and definite dedication to win others with special effort made in securing life-work decisions for the ministry and mission field and to provide an opportunity for this accomplishment through such means as conferences and retreats.

F. We propose a more intensive training of Church School teachers to be personal evangelists, this to be in cooperation with The Board of Education.

2. TO REACH AND WIN THE FAMILY.

A. We propose to launch a visitation program that will seek to enroll every Methodist family in the Christian Family Movement in which our people will practice daily family worship, Christian living in home and community and regular worship in the Church.

B. We propose to foster the enrollment of 1,000,000 baptized children on the preparatory membership roll before the General Conference of 1952.

C. We propose to impress every Methodist family with the responsibility of being an evangelistic agency to win its children and friends for Christ and the Church.

3. TO REACH AND WIN THE MULTITUDES.

A. We propose in cooperation with the other Christian groups, to undertake the evangelization of America, the Christianization of the social order including all our national and international relationships, taking the Gospel of Christ to the unchurched multitudes by all worthy means at our command, such as radio, television, press, advertising, motion pictures, tracts, literature, preaching in shop, store and street.

B. We pledge full cooperation with the United Evangelistic Advance of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America beginning on World Communion Sunday, in October, 1949 and closing on December 31, 1950.

C. We recommend the regular use of evangelistic services and seminars on religion.

Compiled by Roy A. Fedje for General Conference Delegates.

3. All Specials shall be specific projects that may be visualized and described, such as overseas relief, etc.

4. The Week of Dedication shall be climaxed each year on the third Sunday in Lent, when the Dedication Offering shall be received in all our churches.

5. The Quadrennial Advance Committee shall organize and set up the plan.

6. In each annual conference the Bishop and District Superintendents, the Conference Missionary Secretary, the Chairman of the Conference Board of Missions and Church Extension, and the Chairman of the Conference Board of Lay Activities, the Chairman of the Board of Ministerial Training, the Chairman and Secretary of the Board of Evangelism, the Chairman and Secretary of the Board of Education, the President of the Conference Women's Society of Christian Service, 3 men and 3 women appointed by the District Superintendents, which constitute the Conference Advance Committee. They shall promote the entire For Christ and His Church Movement. It shall be the special duty of district superintendents to encourage the churches in their respective districts, particularly the churches of larger means, to undertake a specific project over and above their World Service offering. The district superintendent shall further and promote the Week of Dedication in their respective Districts, giving full emphasis to both its spiritual and financial aspects.

BE IT RESOLVED, that each Annual Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall so plan its conference budget of world and Conference Benevolences that the 33-1/3 increase in World Service already voted shall become a reality for World Service.
